

CENTRE OF BIOMEDICAL ETHICS AND CULTURE
Sindh Institute of Urology and Transplantation

Dr. Murad Moosa Khan

Biosketch

Dr. Murad Moosa Khan is Professor and Chairman, Department of Psychiatry, Aga Khan University. He did his MBBS from Dow Medical College, Karachi and psychiatric training and fellowship from the Kings College and Institute of Psychiatry, London.

He holds the Membership of Royal College of Psychiatrists (MRCPsych), European Certificate of Specialist Training (CST) and PhD from the University of London. He is a Board member of the International Association for Suicide Prevention (IASP) and member of International Academy of Suicide Research (IASR). He is co-chair of Bioethics Group (BG), AKU and member of the Hospital Ethics Committee, AKU and Karachi Bioethics Group (KBG).

His research interests include epidemiology of suicide and deliberate self-harm, mental health of women and the elderly, psychosomatic medicine and organizational ethics. He is a frequent contributor to the lay press on social and ethical issues.

CENTRE OF BIOMEDICAL ETHICS AND CULTURE